10. Facilitation payments: The School does not make, and will not accept, facilitation payments or "kickbacks" of any kind.
11. Kickbacks: Kickbacks are typically payments made in return for a business favour or advantage. All Staff must avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, that a facilitation payment or kickback will be made or accepted by the School.
12. Payments made by you: If you are asked to make a payment on behalf of the School, you should always be mindful of what the payment is for and whether the amount requested is proportionate to the goods or services provided. You should always ask for a receipt which details the reason for the payment. If you have any suspicions, concerns or queries regarding a payment, you should raise these with the Bursar.

Donations

13. Political parties: The School does not make contributions to political parties. We only make charitable donations which accord with the School's policy on charitable giving and that are legal and ethical under UK law.

Reporting

If you are unsure whether a particular act constitutes bribery or corruption, or if you have any other queries, these should be raised with a member of the senior management team
15. Reporting: If you encounter any of acts of corruption or bribery, if you are offered a bribe by a third party, are asked to make one, suspect that this may happen in the future, or believe that you are a victim of another form of unlawful activity, you must report them promptly in accordance with the School's Whistle-blowing policy.

All staff are required to avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, a breach of this policy.

Records

- 18. The School's obligations: The School must keep financial records and have appropriate internal controls in place evidencing the business reason for making payments to third parties.
- 19. Your obligations: The School does not prohibit employees from accepting normal and appropriate gifts, such as those given to a teacher by a pupil or parent as a thank you. However, a gift above the value of £150 (per family) arising from or connected with employment at NHP must not be accepted without first notifying the Head or Bursar and specifying the nature of the gift and the circumstance in which it is being offered. If, in
- 19.1.1. the reasonable opinion of the Head or Bursar, acceptance of the gift is inappropriate, it must be declined. If an employee is in doubt as to whether a potential act, invitation or gift constitutes bribery, then he/she should seek guidance from the Head or Bursar.
 - 19.1.2. A register of gifts and benefits given and received with a value in excess of £150 will be maintained by the Bursar. A review of this register will take place annually by the Governors' Finance Committee.
 - 19.1.3. If an employee or associated person wishes to provide gifts to suppliers, clients or other business contacts, prior written approval from the Bursar is required, together with details of the intended recipients, reasons for the gift and business objective.
- 20. School's expenses policy: You must ensure all expenses claims relating to hospitality, gifts or expenses incurred to third parties are submitted in accordance with the School's expenses policy and specifically record the reason for the expenditure.

21. Records: All accounts, invoices, memoranda and other documents and records relating to dealings with third parties, such as parents, suppliers and business contacts, should be prepared and maintained with strict accuracy and completeness. No accounts must be kept "off-book" to facilitate or conceal improper payments.

Detriment

22. Detriment: The School is committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of refusing to take part in bribery or corruption, or because of reporting in good faith their suspicion that an actual or potential bribery or other corruption offence has taken place, or may take place in the future.
23. Detrimental treatment: Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, disciplinary action, threats or other unfavourable treatment connected with raising a concern. If you believe that you have suffered any such treatment, you should inform the Bursar immediately. If the matter is not remedied, and you are an employee, you should raise it formally using the School's Grievance Procedure.

Consequences of breaching this policy

24. Breach: Any employee who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal for gross misconduct. Anyone else who provides services to the School and is found to be in breach of this policy will have their contract terminated.
25. Sanction: For individuals, bribery and corruption are punishable by up to ten years' imprisonment. If the School is found to have taken part in corruption, the School could face an unlimited fine and damage to its reputation. The School therefore takes its legal responsibilities very seriously.
